Date: 6-30-10

9 Comes now Kevin & Kathleen Vasconcellos, hereinafter referred to as 10 "Petitioner," and moves the court for relief as herein requested:

11 PARTIES

12 Petitioner is Kevin & Kathleen Vasconcellos, 16791 Southwest Sarala St Beaverton OR 13 97007.

14 Currently Known Defendant(s) are/is: Wells Fargo Home Loan Mortgage Inc, 1 home Campus, 15 Mac X2401-049, Des Moines , IA 50328, by and through its attorney, , , .

16 STATEMENT OF CAUSE

17 Petitioner, entered into a consumer contract for the refinance of a primary residence located at 18 16791 Southwest Sarala St Beaverton OR 97007, hereinafter referred to as the "property."

19 Defendants, acting in concert and collusion with others, induced Petitioner to enter into a 20 predatory loan agreement with Defendant.

21 Defendants committed numerous acts of fraud against Petitioner in furtherance of a carefully
22 crafted scheme intended to defraud Petitioner.

23 Defendants failed to make proper notices to Petitioner that would have given Petitioner warning
24 of the types of tactics used by Defendants to defraud Petitioner.

H

25 Defendants charged false fees to Petitioner at settlement.
26 Defendants used the above referenced false fees to compensate agents of Petitioner in order to 27 induce said agents to breach their fiduciary duty to Petitioner.
28 Defendant's attorney caused to be initiated collection procedures, knowing said collection 29 procedures in the instant action were frivolous as lender is estopped from collection procedures, 30 under authority of Uniform Commercial Code 3-501, subsequent to the request by Petitioner for 31 the production of the original promissory note alleged to create a debt.

32 IN BRIEF
33 (Non-factual Statement of Posture and Position)

34 It is not the intent of Petitioner to indict the entire industry. It is just that Plaintiff will be 35 making a number of allegations that, outside the context of the current condition of the real 36 estate industry, may seem somewhat outrageous and counter-intuitive.

37 When Petitioner accuses ordinary individuals of acting in concert and collusion with an 38 ongoing criminal conspiracy, it tends to trigger an incredulous response as it is 39 unreasonable to consider that all Agents, loan agents, appraisers, and other ordinary 40 people, just doing what they have been trained to do, are out to swindle the poor 41 unsuspecting borrower.

42 The facts Petitioner is prepared to prove are that Petitioner has been harmed by fraud
43 committed by people acting in concert and collusion, one with the other. Petitioner has no
44 reason to believe that the Agent, loan officer, appraiser, and others were consciously aware 45 that what they were doing was part of an ongoing criminal conspiracy, only that it was,
46 and they, at the very least, kept themselves negligently uninformed of the wrongs they 47 were perpetrating. Petitioner maintains the real culprit is the system itself, including the 48 courts, for failure to strictly enforce the consumer protection laws.

49 CAREFULLY CRAFTED CRIMINAL CONNIVANCE
50 (General State of the Real Estate Industry)

51 THE BEST OF INTENTIONS

52 Prior to the 1980's and 1990's ample government protections were in place to protect 53 consumers and the lending industry from precisely the disaster we now experience.
54 During President Clinton's administration, under the guise of making housing available to ORIGINAL PETITION

55 the poor, primary protections were relaxed which had the effect of releasing the 56 unscrupulous on the unwary.

57 Prior to deregulation in the 1980's, lenders created loans for which they held and assumed 58 the risk. Consequently, Americans were engaged in safe and stable home mortgages.
59 With the protections removed, the unscrupulous lenders swooped in and, instead of 60 making loans available to the poor, used the opportunity to convince the unsophisticated
61 American public to do something that had been traditionally taboo; home buyers were 62 convinced to speculate with their homes, their most important investment.

63 Wells Fargo Home Loan Mortgage Inc, Ameriquest, Countrywide, and many others
64 swooped in and convinced Americans to sell their homes, get out of their safe mortgage 65 agreements, and speculate with the equity they had gained by purchasing homes they could 66 not afford. Lenders created loans intended to fail as, under the newly crafted system, the 67 Lender profited more from a mortgage default than from a stable loan.

68 Companies cropped up who called themselves banks when, in fact, they were only either 69 subsidiaries of banks, or unaffiliated companies that were operated for the purpose of 70 creating and selling promissory notes. As will be demonstrated, these companies then 71 profited from the failure of the underlying loans.

72 HOW IT WORKS

73 Briefly, how it works is this, the Lender would secure a large loan from a large bank, 74 convert that loan into 20 and 30 year mortgages and then sell the promise to pay to an 75 investor.

76 People would set up mortgage companies buy securing a large loan from one of the major
77 banks, then convert that loan into 20 and 30 year mortgages. In order to accomplish this 78 an Agent would contract with a seller to find a buyer, bring both seller and buyer to a 79 lender who would secure the title from the seller using the borrowed bank funds for that 80 purpose, and then trade the title to the buyer in exchange for a promissory note.

81 The lender then creates a 20 or 30 year mortgage with money the lender must repay within 82 6 months. As soon as the closing is consummated, the promissory note is sold to an 83 investor pool.

84 Using the instant case as an example, a 257,600.00 note at 9.1870% interest over 30
85 years will produce $117,490.76 The lender can then offer to the investor the security

86 instrument (promissory note) at say 50% of it's future value. The investor will, over the 87 life of the note, less approximately 3.00% servicing fees, realize $372,790.64 . The lender
88 can then pay back the bank and retain a handsome profit in the amount of $138,249.85.
89 The lender, however, is not done with the deal.

90 The lender signed over the promissory note to the investor at the time of the trade, but did 91 not sign over the lien document (mortgage or deed of trust). The State of Kansas Supreme 92 Court addressed this issue and stated that such a transaction was certainly legal. However,
93 it created a fatal flaw as the holder of the lien document, at time of sale of the security
94 instrument, received consideration in excess of the lien amount. Since the lien holder 95 received consideration, he could not be harmed. Therefore the lien became an 96 unenforceable document.

97 This begs the question: if keeping the lien would render it void, why would the lender not 98 simply transfer the lien with the promissory note? The reason is because the lender will 99 hold the lien for three years, file an Internal Revenue Service Form 1099a, claim the full 100 amount of the lien as abandoned funds, and deduct the full amount from the lender's tax 101 liability. The lender, by this maneuver, gets consideration a second time. And still the 102 lender is not done profiting from the deal.

103 After sale of the promissory note, the lender remains as the servicer for the investor. The 104 lender will receive 3% of each payment the lender collects and renders to the investor
105 pool. However, if the payment is late, the lender is allowed to assess an extra 5% and keep 106 that amount. Also, if the loan defaults, the lender stands to gain thousands for handling the 107 foreclosure.

108 The lender stands to profit more from a note that is overly expensive, than from a good 109 stable loan. And where, you may ask, does all this profit come from? It comes from the 110 equity the borrower had built up in the home. And still the lender is not finished profiting 111 from the deal.

112 Another nail was driven in the American financial coffin when on the last day Congress 113 was in session in 2000 when restrictions that had been in place since the economic 114 collapse of 1907 were removed. Until 1907 investors were allowed to bet on stocks
115 without actually buying them. This unbridled speculation led directly to an economic 116 collapse. As a result the legislature banned the practice, until the year 2000. In 2000 the 117 unscrupulous lenders got their way on the last day of the congressional session. Congress

118 removed the restriction banning derivatives and again allowed the practice, this time
119 taking only 8 years to crash the stock market. This practice allowed the lender to profit 120 further from the loan by betting on the failure of the security instrument he had just sold to 121 the unwary investor, thus furthering the purpose of the lender to profit from both the 122 borrower (consumer) and the investor.

123 The failure of so many loans recently resulted in a seven hundred and fifty billion dollar 124 bailout at the expense of the taxpayer. The unsuspecting consumer was lulled into 125 accepting the pronouncements of the lenders, appraisers, underwriters, and trustees as all 126 were acting under the guise of government regulation and, therefore, the borrower had 127 reason to expect good and fair dealings from all. Unfortunately, the regulations in place to 128 protect the consumer from just this kind of abuse were simply being ignored.

129 The loan origination fee from the HUD1 settlement statement is the finder's fee paid for 130 the referral of the client to the lender by a person acting as an agent for the borrower.
131 Hereinafter, the person or entity who receives any portion of the yield spread premium, or 132 a commission of any kind consequent to securing the loan agreement through from the 133 borrower will be referred to as "Agent." The fee, authorized by the consumer protection 134 law is restricted to 1% of the principal of the note. It was intended that the Agent, when 135 seeking out a lender for the borrower, would seek the best deal for his client rather than 136 who would pay him the most. That was the intent, but not the reality. The reality is that 137 Agents never come away from the table with less than 2% or 3% of the principal. This is 138 accomplished by undisclosed fees to the Agent in order to induce the Agent to breach his 139 fiduciary duty to the borrower and convince the borrower to accept a more expensive loan 140 product than the borrower qualifies for. This will generate more profits for the lender and,
141 consequently, for the Agent.

142 It is a common practice for lenders to coerce appraisers to give a higher appraisal than is 143 the fair market price. This allows the lender to increase the cost of the loan product and 144 give the impression that the borrower is justified in making the purchase.

145 The lender then charges the borrower an underwriting fee in order to convince the 146 borrower that someone with knowledge has gone over the conditions of the note and 147 certified that they meet all legal criteria. The trustee, at closing, participates actively in the 148 deception of the borrower by placing undue stress on the borrower to sign the large stack
149 of paperwork without reading it. The trustee is, after all, to be trusted and has been paid to 150 insure the transaction. This trust is systematically violated for the purpose of taking unfair

151 advantage of the borrower. The entire loan process is a carefully crafted contrive 152 connivance designed and intended to induce the unsophisticated borrower into accepting a 153 loan product that is beyond the borrowers means to repay. With all this, it should be a 154 surprise to no one that this country is having a real estate crisis.

155 PETITIONER WILL PROVE THE FOLLOWING

156 Petitioner is prepared to prove, by a preponderance of evidence that:

- 157 • Lender has no legal standing to bring collection or foreclosure claims against the 158 property;
- 159 • Lender is not a real party in interest in any contract which can claim a collateral 160 interest in the property;
- 161 • even if Lender were to prove up a contract to which Lender had standing to enforce 162 against Petitioner, no valid lien exists which would give Lender a claim against the 163 property;
- 164 • even if Lender were to prove up a contract to which Lender had standing to enforce 165 against Petitioner, said contract was fraudulent in its creation as endorsement was 166 secured by acts of negligence, common law fraud, fraud by non-disclosure, fraud in 167 the inducement, fraud in the execution, usury, and breaches of contractual and 168 fiduciary obligations by Mortgagee or "Trustee" on the Deed of Trust, "Mortgage 169 Agents," "Loan Originators," "Loan Seller," "Mortgage Aggregator," "Trustee of 170 Pooled Assets," "Trustee or officers of Structured Investment Vehicle," 171 "Investment Banker," "Trustee of Special Purpose Vehicle/Issuer of Certificates of 172 'Asset-Backed Certificates,'" "Seller of 'Asset-Backed' Certificates (shares or 173 bonds)," "Special Servicer" and Trustee, respectively, of certain mortgage loans 174 pooled together in a trust fund;
- 175 • Defendants have concocted a carefully crafted connivance wherein Lender
176 conspired with Agents, et al, to strip Petitioner of Petitioner's equity in the property
177 by inducing Plaintiff to enter into a predatory loan inflated loan product;
- 178 • Lender received unjust enrichment in the amount of 5% of each payment made late 179 to Lender while Lender and Lender's assigns acted as servicer of the note;

- Lender and Lender's assigns, who acted as servicer in place of Lender, profited by handling the foreclosure process on a contract Lender designed to have a high probability of default;
  - Lender intended to defraud Investor by converting the promissory note into a security instrument and selling same to Investor;
  - Lender intended to defraud Investor and the taxpayers of the United States by withholding the lien document from the sale of the promissory note in order that Lender could then hold the lien for three years, then prepare and file Internal Revenue Form 1099a and falsely claim the full lien amount as abandoned funds and deduct same from Lender's income tax obligation;
  - Lender defrauded backers of derivatives by betting on the failure of the promissory note the lender designed to default;
  - participant Defendants, et al, in the securitization scheme described herein have devised business plans to reap millions of dollars in profits at the expense of Petitioner and others similarly situated.

PETITIONER SEEKS REMEDY

In addition to seeking compensatory, consequential and other damages, Petitioner seeks declaratory relief as to what (if any) party, entity or individual or group thereof is the owner of the promissory note executed at the time of the loan closing, and whether the Deed of Trust (Mortgage) secures any obligation of the Petitioner, and a Mandatory Injunction requiring re-conveyance of the subject property to the Petitioner or, in the alternative a Final Judgment granting Petitioner Quiet Title in the subject property.

PETITIONER HAS BEEN HARMED

Petitioner has suffered significant harm and detriment as a result of the actions of Defendants.

Such harm and detriment includes economic and non-economic damages, and injuries to Petitioner's mental and emotional health and strength, all to be shown according to proof at trial.

In addition, Petitioner will suffer grievous and irreparable further harm and detriment unless the equitable relief requested herein is granted.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

209

DEFENDANTS LACK STANDING

210

No evidence of Contractual Obligation

211

Defendants claim a controversy based on a contractual violation by Petitioner but have failed to produce said contract. Even if Defendants produced evidence of the existence of said contract in the form of an allegedly accurate photocopy of said document, a copy is only hearsay evidence that a contract actually existed at one point in time. A copy, considering the present state of technology, could be easily altered. As Lender only created one original and that original was left in the custody of Lender, it was imperative that Lender protect said instrument.

217

In as much as the Lender is required to present the original on demand of Petitioner, there can be no presumption of regularity when the original is not so produced. In as much as Lender has refused Petitioner's request of the chain of custody of the security instrument in question by refusing to identify all current and past real parties in interest, there is no way to follow said chain of custody to insure, by verified testimony, that no alterations to the original provisions in the contract have been made. Therefore, the alleged copy of the original is only hearsay evidence that an original document at one time existed. Petitioner maintains that, absent production of admissible evidence of a contractual obligation on the part of Petitioner, Defendants are without standing to invoke the subject matter jurisdiction of the court.

226

No Proper Evidence of Agency

227

Defendants claim agency to represent the principal in a contractual agreement involving Petitioner, however, Defendants have failed to provide any evidence of said agency other than a pronouncement that agency has been assigned by some person, the true identity and capacity of whom has not been established. Defendants can hardly claim to be agents of a principal then refuse to identify said principal. All claims of agency are made from the mouth of the agent with no attempt to provide admissible evidence from the principal.

233

Absent proof of agency, Defendants lack standing to invoke the subject matter jurisdiction of the court.

235           Special Purpose Vehicle

236   Since the entity now claiming agency to represent the holder of the security instrument is not the 237   original lender, Petitioner has reason to believe that the promissory note, upon consummation of 238   the contract, was converted to a security and sold into a special purpose vehicle and now resides
239   in a Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduit (REMIC) as defined by the Internal Revenue
240   Code and as such, cannot be removed from the REMIC as such would be a prohibited
241   transaction. If the mortgage was part of a special purpose vehicle and was removed on 242   consideration of foreclosure, the real party in interest would necessarily be the trustee of the 243   special purpose vehicle. Nothing in the pleadings of Defendants indicates the existence of a
244   special purpose vehicle, and the lack of a proper chain of custody documentation gives Petitioner
245   cause to believe defendant is not the proper agent of the real party in interest.

246           CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY AND THEFT

247   Defendants, by and through Defendant's Agents, conspired with other Defendants, et al, toward 248   a criminal conspiracy to defraud Petitioner. Said conspiracy but are not limited to acts of 249   negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, common law fraud, fraud by non-disclosure, and tortious 250   acts of conspiracy and theft, to include but not limited to, the assessment of improper fees to 251   Petitioner by Lender, which were then used to fund the improper payment of commission fees to 252   Agent in order to induce Agent to violate Agent's fiduciary duty to Petitioner.

253           AGENT PRACTICED UP-SELLING

254   By and through the above alleged conspiracy, Agent practiced up-selling to Petitioner. In so
255   doing, Agent violated the trust relationship actively cultivated by Agent and supported by fact
256   that Agent was licensed by the state. Agent further defrauded Petitioner by failing to disclose 257   Agent's conspiratorial relationship to Lender, Agent violated Agent's fiduciary duty to 258   Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, through a series of carefully crafted 259   connivances, wherein Agent proactively made knowingly false and misleading statements of 260   alleged fact to Petitioner, and by giving partial disclosure of facts intended to directly mislead
261   Petitioner for the purpose of inducing Petitioner to make decisions concerning the acceptance of 262   a loan product offered by the Lender. Said loan product was more expensive than Petitioner
263   could legally afford. Agent acted with full knowledge that Petitioner would have made a 264   different decision had Agent given complete disclosure.

265       FRAUDULENT INDUCEMENT

266   Lender maliciously induced Petitioner to accept a loan product, Lender knew, or should have 267   known, Petitioner could not afford in order to unjustly enrich Lender.

268       EXTRA PROFIT ON SALE OF PREDATORY LOAN PRODUCT

269   Said more expensive loan product was calculated to produce a higher return when sold as a 270   security to an investor who was already waiting to purchase the loan as soon as it could be 271   consummated.

272       Extra Commission for Late Payments

273   Lender acted with deliberate malice in order to induce Petitioner to enter into a loan agreement
274   that Lender intended Petitioner would have difficulty paying. The industry standard payment to 275   the servicer for servicing a mortgage note is 3% of the amount collected. However, if the 276   borrower is late on payments, a 5% late fee is added and this fee is retained by the servicer.
277   Thereby, the Lender stands to receive more than double the regular commission on collections if 278   the borrower pays late.

279       Extra Income for Handling Foreclosure

280   Lender acted with deliberate malice in order to induce petitioner to enter into a loan agreement
281   on which Lender intended petitioner to default. In case of default, the Lender, acting as servicer, 282   receives considerable funds for handling and executing the foreclosure process.

283       Credit Default Swap Gambling

284   Lender, after deliberately creating a loan intended to default is now in a position to bet on credit
285   default swap, commonly referred to as a derivative as addressed more fully below. Since Lender 286   designed the loan to fail, betting on said failure is essentially a sure thing.

287       LENDER ATTEMPTING TO FRAUDULENTLY COLLECT ON VOID LIEN

288   Lender sold the security instrument after closing and received consideration in an amount in 289   excess of the lien held by Lender. Since Lender retained the lien document upon the sale of the 290   security instrument, Lender separated the lien from said security instrument, creating a fatal and 291   irreparable flaw.

292 When Lender received consideration while still holding the lien and said consideration was in 293 excess of the amount of the lien, Lender was in a position such that he could not be harmed and 294 could not gain standing to enforce the lien. The lien was, thereby, rendered void.

295 Since the separation of the lien from the security instrument creates such a considerable concern, 296 said separation certainly begs a question: "Why would the Lender retain the lien when selling the 297 security instrument?"

298 When you follow the money the answer is clear. The Lender will hold the lien for three years,
299 then file an IRS Form 1099a and claim the full amount of the lien as abandoned funds and deduct
300 the full amount from Lender's tax liability, thereby, receiving consideration a second time.

301 Later, in the expected eventuality of default by petitioner, Lender then claimed to transfer the 302 lien to the holder of the security, however, the lien once satisfied, does not gain authority just 303 because the holder, after receiving consideration, decides to transfer it to someone else.

304       LENDER PROFIT BY CREDIT DEFAULT SWAP DERIVATIVES

305 Lender further stood to profit by credit default swaps in the derivatives market, by way of inside 306 information that Lender had as a result of creating the faulty loans sure to default. Lender was 307 then free to invest on the bet that said loan would default and stood to receive unjust enrichment
308 a third time. This credit default swap derivative market scheme is almost totally responsible for 309 the stock market disaster we now experience as it was responsible for the stock market crash in 310 1907.

311       LENDER CHARGED FALSE FEES

312 Lender charged fees to Petitioner that were in violation of the limitations imposed by the Real
313 Estate Settlement Procedures Act as said fees were simply contrived and not paid to a third party 314 vendor.

315 Lender charged other fees that were a normal part of doing business and should have been 316 included in the finance charge.

317 Below is a listing of the fees charged at settlement. Neither at settlement, nor at any other time
318 did Lender or Trustee provide documentation to show that the fees herein listed were valid,
319 necessary, reasonable, and proper to charge Petitioner.

803	Appraisal	$196.00
804	Credit Report	$18.00
805	Tax Service Fee	$60.00
806	Processing Fee	$495.00
901	Interest from 8/31/05 to 9/1/05 @ 40.58/day	$40.58
902	Mortgage Insurance Premium for months to	$421.86
1001	Hazard Insurance	$105.45
1004	County Property Taxes	$3,015.00
1101	Settlement or closing fee	$275.00
1109	Lenders Coverage Fee	$962.00
1111	Endorsement Fee	$50.00
1112	Government Service Fee	$50.00
1201	Recording Fee	$110.00

320 Debtor is unable to determine whether or not the above fees are valid in accordance with the 321 restrictions provided by the various consumer protection laws. Therefore, please provide; a 322 complete billing from each vendor who provided the above listed services; the complete contact 323 information for each vendor who provided a billed service; clearly stipulate as to the specific 324 service performed; a showing that said service was necessary; a showing that the cost of said 325 service is reasonable; a showing of why said service is not a regular cost of doing business that 326 should rightly be included in the finance charge.

327 The above charges are hereby disputed and deemed unreasonable until such time as said charges 328 have been demonstrated to be reasonable, necessary, and in accordance with the limitations and 329 restrictions included in any and all laws, rules, and regulations intended to protect the consumer.

330 In the event lender fails to properly document the above charges, borrower will consider same as 331 false charges. The effect of the above amounts that borrower would pay over the life of the note
 332 will be an overpayment of $393,549.73 This amount will be reduced by the amount of items 333 above when said items are fully documented.

334 RESPA PENALTY

335 From a cursory examination of the records, with the few available, the apparent RESPA
 336 violations are as follows: Good Faith Estimate not within limits, No HUD-1 Booklet, Truth In 337 Lending Statement not within limits compared to Note, Truth in Lending Statement not timely 338 presented, HUD-1 not presented at least one day before closing, No Holder Rule Notice in Note, 339 No 1st Payment Letter.

340 The closing documents included no signed and dated : Financial Privacy Act Disclosure; Equal
 341 Credit Reporting Act Disclosure; notice of right to receive appraisal report; servicing disclosure
 342 statement; borrower's Certification of Authorization; notice of credit score; RESPA servicing

343 disclosure letter; loan discount fee disclosure; business insurance company arrangement 344 disclosure; notice of right to rescind.

345 The courts have held that the borrower does not have to show harm to claim a violation of the 346 Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, as the Act was intended to insure strict compliance. And, 347 in as much as the courts are directed to assess a penalty of no less than two hundred dollars and 348 no more than two thousand, considering the large number enumerated here, it is reasonable to 349 consider that the court will assess the maximum amount for each violation.

350 Since the courts have held that the penalty for a violation of RESPA accrues at consummation of 351 the note, borrower has calculated that, the number of violations found in a cursory examination 352 of the note, if deducted from the principal, would result in an overpayment on the part of the 353 borrower, over the life of the note, of $457,323.33.

354 If the violation penalty amounts for each of the unsupported fees listed above are included, the 355 amount by which the borrower would be defrauded is $449,346.11

356 Adding in RESPA penalties for all the unsupported settlement fees along with the TILA>Note
357 variance, it appears that lender intended to defraud borrower in the amount of $1,300,219.17

358 LENDER CONSPIRED WITH APPRAISER

359 Lender, in furtherance of the above referenced conspiracy, conspired with appraiser for the 360 purpose of preparing an appraisal with a falsely stated price, in violation of appraiser's fiduciary 361 duty to Petitioner and appraiser's duty to provide fair and honest services, for the purpose of 362 inducing Petitioner to enter into a loan product that was fraudulent toward the interests of 363 Petitioner.

364 LENDER CONSPIRED WITH TRUSTEE

365 Lender conspired with the trust Agent at closing to create a condition of stress for the specific 366 purpose of inducing Petitioner to sign documents without allowing time for Petitioner to read and 367 fully understand what was being signed.

368 The above referenced closing procedure was a carefully crafted connivance, designed and 369 intended to induce Petitioner, through shame and trickery, in violation of trustee's fiduciary duty
370 to Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, to sign documents that Petitioner

371 did not have opportunity to read and fully understand, thereby, denying Petitioner full disclosure 372 as required by various consumer protection statutes.

373 DECEPTIVE ADVERTISING AND OTHER UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

374 In the manner in which Defendants have carried on their business enterprises, they have engaged 375 in a variety of unfair and unlawful business practices prohibited by 15 USC Section 45 et seq.
376 (Deceptive Practices Act).

377 Such conduct comprises a pattern of business activity within the meaning of such statutes, and 378 has directly and proximately caused Petitioner to suffer economic and non-economic harm and 379 detriment in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

380 EQUITABLE TOLLING FOR TILA AND RESPA

381 The Limitations Period for Petitioners' Damages Claims under TILA and RESPA should be 382 Equitably Tolled due to the DEFENDANTS' Misrepresentations and Failure to Disclose.

383 Any claims for statutory and other money damages under the Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. § 384 1601, et. seq.) and under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. § 2601 et. seq.)
385 are subject to a one-year limitations period; however, such claims are subject to the equitable 386 tolling doctrine. The Ninth Circuit has interpreted the TILA limitations period in § 1640(e) as 387 subject to equitable tolling. In King v. California, 784 F.2d 910 (9th Cir.1986), the court held 388 that given the remedial purpose of TILA, the limitations period should run from the date of 389 consummation of the transaction, but that "the doctrine of equitable tolling may, in appropriate 390 circumstances, suspend the limitations period until the borrower discovers or has reasonable 391 opportunity to discover the fraud or nondisclosures that form the basis of the TILA action." King 392 v. California, 784 F.2d 910, 915 9th Cir. 1986).

393 Likewise, while the Ninth Circuit has not taken up the question whether 12 U.S.C. § 2614, the 394 anti-kickback provision of RESPA, is subject to equitable tolling, other Courts have, and hold 395 that such limitations period may be equitably tolled. The Court of Appeals for the District of 396 Columbia held that § 2614 imposes a strictly jurisdictional limitation, Hardin v. City Title &
397 Escrow Co., 797 F.2d 1037, 1039-40 (D.C. Cir. 1986), while the Seventh Circuit came to the 398 opposite conclusion. Lawyers Title Ins. Corp. v. Dearborn Title Corp., 118 F.3d 1157, 1164 (7th 399 Cir. 1997). District courts have largely come down on the side of the Seventh Circuit in holding 400 that the one-year limitations period in § 2614 is subject to equitable tolling. See, e.g., Kerby v.

401 Mortgage Funding Corp., 992 F.Supp. 787, 791-98 (D.Md.1998); Moll v. U.S. Life Title Ins. Co., 402 700 F.Supp. 1284, 1286-89 (S.D.N.Y.1988). Importantly, the Ninth Circuit, as noted above, has 403 interpreted the TILA limitations period in 15 U.S.C. § 1640 as subject to equitable tolling; the 404 language of the two provisions is nearly identical. King v. California, 784 F.2d at 914. While not 405 of precedential value, this Court has previously found both the TILA and RESPA limitations
406 periods to be subject to equitable tolling. Blaylock v. First American Title Ins. Co., 504
407 F.Supp.2d 1091, (W.D. Wash. 2007). 1106-07.

408 The Ninth Circuit has explained that the doctrine of equitable tolling "focuses on excusable delay 409 by the Petitioner," and inquires whether "a reasonable Petitioner would ... have known of the 410 existence of a possible claim within the limitations period." Johnson v. Henderson, 314 F.3d 411 409, 414 (9th Cir.2002), Santa Maria v. Pacific Bell, 202 F.3d 1170, 1178 (9th Cir.2000).
412 Equitable tolling focuses on the reasonableness of the Petitioner's delay and does not depend on 413 any wrongful conduct by the Defendants. Santa Maria. at 1178.

414 BUSINESS PRACTICES CONCERNING DISREGARDING OF UNDERWRITING
415 STANDARDS

416 Traditionally, Lenders required borrowers seeking mortgage loans to document their income and 417 assets by, for example, providing W-2 statements, tax returns, bank statements, documents 418 evidencing title, employment information, and other information and documentation that could 419 be analyzed and investigated for its truthfulness, accuracy, and to determine the borrower's 420 ability to repay a particular loan over both the short and long term. Defendants deviated from and 421 disregarded these standards, particularly with regard to its riskier and more profitable loan 422 products.

423 Low-Documentation/No-Documentation Loans.

424 Driven by its desire for market share and a perceived need to maintain competitiveness with the 425 likes of Countrywide, Defendants began to introduce an ever increasing variety of low and no
426 documentation loan products, including the HARMs and HELOCs described hereinabove, and 427 began to deviate from and ease its underwriting criteria, and then to grant liberal exceptions to 428 the already eased underwriting standards to the point of disregarding such standards. This 429 quickened the loan origination process, allowing for the generation of more and more loans
430 which could then be resold and/or securitized in the secondary market.

431 Defendants marketed no-documentation/low-documentation loan programs that included
432 HARMs and HELOCs, among others, in which loans were given based on the borrower's "stated 433 income" or "stated assets" (SISA) neither of which were verified. Employment was verbally 434 confirmed, if at all, but not further investigated, and income, if it was even considered as a factor, 435 was to be roughly consistent with incomes in the types of jobs in which the borrower was 436 employed. When borrowers were requested to document their income, they were able to do so 437 through information that was less reliable than in a full-documentation loan.

438 For stated income loans, it became standard practice for loan processors, loan officers and 439 underwriters to rely on www.salary.com to see if a stated income was reasonable. Such stated 440 income loans, emphasizing loan origination from a profitability standpoint at the expense of 441 determining the ability of the borrower to repay the loan from an underwriting standpoint, 442 encouraged the overstating and/or fabrication of income.

443       Easing of Underwriting Standards

444 In order to produce more loans that could be resold in the secondary mortgage market, 445 Defendants also relaxed, and often disregarded, traditional underwriting standards used to 446 separate acceptable from unacceptable risk. Examples of such relaxed standards were reducing 447 the base FICO score needed for a SISA loan.

448 Other underwriting standards that Defendants relaxed included qualifying interest rates (the rate 449 used to determine whether borrowers can afford the loan), loan to value ratios (the amount of 450 loan(s) compared to the appraised/sale price of the property, whichever is lower), and debt-to-451 income ratios (the amount of monthly income compared to monthly debt service payments and 452 other monthly payment obligations).

453 With respect to HARMS, Defendants underwrote loans without regard to the borrower's long-454 term financial circumstances, approving the loan based on the initial fixed rate without taking 455 into account whether the borrower could afford the substantially higher payment that would 456 inevitably be required during the remaining term of the loan.

457 With respect to HELOCs, Defendants underwrote and approved such loans based only on the 458 borrower's ability to afford the interest-only payment during the initial draw period of the loan, 459 rather than on the borrower's ability to afford the subsequent, fully amortized principal and 460 interest payments.

461 As Defendants pushed to expand market share, they eased other basic underwriting standards.
462 For example, higher loan-to-value (LTV) and combined loan-to-value (CLTV) ratios were 463 allowed. Likewise, higher debt-to-income (DTI) ratios were allowed. At the same time that they 464 eased underwriting standards the Defendants also were encouraging consumers to go further into 465 debt in order to supply the very lucrative aftermarket of mortgage backed securities. The relaxed
466 underwriting standards created the aftermarket supply they needed. As a result, the Defendants 467 made it easy for the unwary consumer to take on more debt than he could afford by encouraging 468 unsound financial practices, all the while knowing defaults would occur more and more
469 frequently as the credit ratios of citizens reached the limit of the new relaxed underwriting
470 standards.

471 Defendants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, from its own
472 underwriting guidelines industry standards that it was accumulating and selling/reselling risky
473 loans that were likely to end up in default. However, as the pressure mounted to increase market
474 share and originate more loans, Defendants began to grant "exceptions" even to its relaxed
475 underwriting guidelines. Such was the environment that loan officers and underwriters were,
476 from time to time, placed in the position of having to justify why they did not approve a loan that 477 failed to meet underwriting criteria.

478      Risk Layering

479 Defendants compromised its underwriting even further by risk layering, i.e. combining high risk 480 loans with one or more relaxed underwriting standards.

481 Defendants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that layered risk 482 would increase the likelihood of default. Among the risk layering Defendants engaged in were 483 approving HARM loans with little to no down payment, little to no documentation, and high 484 DTI/LTV/CLTV ratios. Despite such knowledge, Defendants combined these very risk factors in 485 the loans it promoted to borrowers.

486 Loan officers and mortgage Agents aided and abetted this scheme by working closely with other 487 mortgage Lenders/mortgage bankers to increase loan originations, knowing or having reason to 488 believe that Defendants and other mortgage Lenders/mortgage bankers with whom they did 489 business ignored basic established underwriting standards and acted to mislead the borrower, all 490 to the detriment of the borrower and the consumer of loan products..

491 Petitioner is informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Defendants, and each of them, 492 engaged and/or actively participated in, authorized, ratified, or had knowledge of, all of the 493 business practices described above in paragraphs 30-42 of this Complaint

494 UNJUST ENRICHMENT

495 Petitioner is informed and believes that each and all of the Defendants received a benefit at 496 Petitioner's expense, including but not limited to the following: To the Agent, commissions, 497 yield spread premiums, spurious fees and charges, and other "back end" payments in amounts to 498 be proved at trial; To the originating Lender, commissions, incentive bonuses, resale premiums,
499 surcharges and other "back end" payments in amounts to be proved at trial; To the investors,
500 resale premiums, and high rates of return; To the servicers including EMS, servicing fees, 501 percentages of payment proceeds, charges, and other "back end" payments in amounts to be 502 proved at trial; To all participants, the expectation of future revenues from charges, penalties and 503 fees paid by Petitioner when the unaffordable LOAN was foreclosed or refinanced.

504 By their misrepresentations, omissions and other wrongful acts alleged heretofore, Defendants,
505 and each of them, were unjustly enriched at the expense of Petitioner, and Petitioner was unjustly
506 deprived, and is entitled to restitution in the amount of $1,300,219.17

507 CLAIM TO QUIET TITLE.

508 Petitioner properly averred a claim to quiet title. Petitioner included both the street address, and 509 the Assessor's Parcel Number for the property. Petitioner has set forth facts concerning the title
510 interests of the subject property. Moreover, as shown above, Petitioner's claims for rescission
511 and fraud are meritorious. As such, Petitioner's bases for quiet title are meritorious as well.

512 Defendants have no title, estate, lien, or interest in the Subject Property in that the purported
513 power of sale contained in the Deed of Trust is of no force or effect because Defendants' security
514 interest in the Subject Property has been rendered void and that the Defendants are not the holder
515 in due course of the Promissory Note. Moreover, because Petitioner properly pled all Defendants'
516 involvement in a fraudulent scheme, all Defendants are liable for the acts of its co-conspirators,

517 "a Petitioner is entitled to damages from those Defendants who concur in the tortuous 518 scheme with knowledge of its unlawful purpose." Wyatt v. Union Mortgage Co., 24 Cal.
519 3d 773, 157 Cal. Rptr. 392, 598 P.2d 45 (1979); Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics, Inc.
520 v. Stop Huntingdon Animal Cruelty USA, Inc., 143 Cal. App. 4th 1284, 50 Cal. Rptr. 3d

521           27 (1st Dist. 2006); Kidron v. Movie Acquisition Corp., 40 Cal. App. 4th 1571, 47 Cal.
522           Rptr. 2d 752 (2d Dist. 1995).

523           SUFFICIENCY OF PLEADING

524 Petitioner has sufficiently pled that relief can be granted on each and every one of the 525 Complaint's causes of action. A complaint should not be dismissed "unless it appears beyond 526 doubt that the Petitioner can prove no set of facts in support of Petitioner claim which would 527 entitle Petitioner to relief." Housley v. U.S. (9th Cir. Nev. 1994) 35 F.3d 400, 401. "All 528 allegations of material fact in the complaint are taken as true and construed in the light most 529 favorable to Petitioner." Argabright v. United States, 35 F.3d 1476, 1479 (9th Cir. 1996).

530 Attendant, the Complaint includes a "short, plain statement, of the basis for relief." Fed. Rule Civ. Proc.
531 8(a). The Complaint contains cognizable legal theories, sufficient facts to support cognizable legal 532 theories, and seeks remedies to which Petitioner is entitled. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dept., 901 F.2d
533 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988); King v. California, 784 F.2d 910, 913 (9th Cir. 1986). Moreover, the legal 534 conclusions in the Complaint can and should be drawn from the facts alleged, and, in turn, the court
535 should accept them as such. Clegg v. Cult Awareness Network, 18 F.3d 752 (9th Cir. 1994). Lastly,
536 Petitioner's complaint contains claims and has a probable validity of proving a "set of facts" in support of 537 their claim entitling them to relief. Housley v. U.S. (9th Cir. Nev. 1994) 35 F.3d 400, 401. Therefore, 538 relief as requested herein should be granted.

539           CAUSES OF ACTION

540           BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

541 Defendants Agent, appraiser, trustee, Lender, et al, and each of them, owed Petitioner a fiduciary 542 duty of care with respect to the mortgage loan transactions and related title activities involving 543 the Trust Property.

544 Defendants breached their duties to Petitioner by, inter alia, the conduct described above. Such 545 breaches included, but were not limited to, ensuring their own and Petitioners' compliance with 546 all applicable laws governing the loan transactions in which they were involved, including but 547 not limited to, TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and Z promulgated there under.

548 Defendant's breaches of said duties were a direct and proximate cause of economic and non-549 economic harm and detriment to Petitioner(s).

550 Petitioner did suffer economic, non-economic harm, and detriment as a result of such conduct,
551 all to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

552 CAUSE OF ACTION - NEGLIGENCE/NEGLIGENCE PER SE

553 Defendants owed a general duty of care with respect to Petitioners, particularly concerning their 554 duty to properly perform due diligence as to the loans and related transactional issues described 555 hereinabove.

556 In addition, Defendants owed a duty of care under TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations
557 X and Z promulgated there under to, among other things, provide proper disclosures concerning 558 the terms and conditions of the loans they marketed, to refrain from marketing loans they knew 559 or should have known that borrowers could not afford or maintain, and to avoid paying undue 560 compensation such as "yield spread premiums" to mortgage Agents and loan officers.

561 Defendants knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the loan 562 transactions involving Petitioner and other persons similarly situated were defective, unlawful, 563 violative of federal and state laws and regulations, and would subject Petitioner to economic and 564 non-economic harm and other detriment.

565 Petitioner is among the class of persons that TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and 566 Z promulgated there under were intended and designed to protect, and the conduct alleged 567 against Defendants is the type of conduct and harm which the referenced statutes and regulations 568 were designed to deter.

569 As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence, Petitioner suffered economic and 570 non-economic harm in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

571 AGENT: COMMON LAW FRAUD

572 If any Agents' misrepresentations made herein were not intentional, said misrepresentations were 573 negligent. When the Agents made the representations alleged herein, he/she/it had no reasonable 574 ground for believing them to be true.

575 Agents made these representations with the intention of inducing Petitioner to act in reliance on 576 these representations in the manner hereafter alleged, or with the expectation that Petitioner 577 would so act.

578 Petitioner is informed and believes that Agent et al, facilitated, aided and abetted various Agents
579 in their negligent misrepresentation, and that various Agents were negligent in not implementing 580 procedures such as underwriting standards oversight that would have prevented various Agents
581 from facilitating the irresponsible and wrongful misrepresentations of various Agents to 582 Defendants.

583 Petitioner is informed and believes that Agent acted in concert and collusion with others named 584 herein in promulgating false representations to cause Petitioner to enter into the LOAN without 585 knowledge or understanding of the terms thereof.

586 As a proximate result of the negligent misrepresentations of Agents as herein alleged, the 587 Petitioner sustained damages, including monetary loss, emotional distress, loss of credit, loss of 588 opportunities, attorney fees and costs, and other damages to be determined at trial. As a 589 proximate result of Agents' breach of duty and all other actions as alleged herein, Defendants has 590 suffered severe emotional distress, mental anguish, harm, humiliation, embarrassment, and 591 mental and physical pain and anguish, all to Petitioner's damage in an amount to be established 592 at trial.

593 PETITIONER PROPERLY AVERRED A CLAIM FOR BREACH OF THE IMPLIED 594 COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING.

595 Petitioner properly pled Defendants violated the breach of implied covenant of good faith and 596 fair dealing. "Every contract imposes upon each party a duty of good faith and fair dealing in its 597 performance and its enforcement." Price v. Wells Fargo Bank, 213 Cal.App.3d 465, 478, 261
598 Cal. Rptr. 735 (1989); Rest.2d Contracts § 205. A mortgage Agent has fiduciary duties. Wyatt v.
599 Union Mortgage Co., (1979) 24 Cal. 3d. 773. Further, In Jonathan Neil & Associates, Inc. v
600 Jones, (2004) 33 Cal. 4th 917, the court stated:

601 In the area of insurance contracts the covenant of good faith and fair dealing has taken on a 602 particular significance, in part because of the special relationship between the insurer and the 603 insured. The insurer, when determining whether to settle a claim, must give at least as much 604 consideration to the welfare of its insured as it gives to its own interests. . . The standard is 605 premised on the insurer's obligation to protect the insured's interests . . . Id. at 937.

606 Likewise, there is a special relationship between an Agent and borrower. "A person who 607 provides Agency services to a borrower in a covered loan transaction by soliciting Lenders or

608 otherwise negotiating a consumer loan secured by real property, is the fiduciary of the 609 consumer...this fiduciary duty [is owed] to the consumer regardless of whom else the Agent may 610 be acting as an Agent for . . . The fiduciary duty of the Agent is to deal with the consumer in 611 good faith. If the Agent knew or should have known that the Borrower will or has a likelihood of 612 defaulting ... they have a fiduciary duty to the borrower not to place them in that loan."
613 (California Department of Real Estate, Section 8: Fiduciary Responsibility, www.dre.ca.gov).
614 [Emphasis Added].

615 All Defendants, willfully breached their implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing with 616 Petitioner when Defendants: (1) Failed to provide all of the proper disclosures; (2) Failed to 617 provide accurate Right to Cancel Notices; (3) Placed Petitioner into Petitioner's current loan
618 product without regard for other more affordable products; (4) Placed Petitioner into a loan
619 without following proper underwriting standards; (5) Failed to disclose to Petitioner that 620 Petitioner was going to default because of the loan being unaffordable; (6) Failed to perform
621 valid and /or properly documented substitutions and assignments so that Petitioner could 622 ascertain Petitioner rights and duties; and (7) Failed to respond in good faith to Petitioner's 623 request for documentation of the servicing of Petitioner's loan and the existence and content of 624 relevant documents. Additionally, Defendants breached their implied covenant of good faith and 625 fair dealing with Petitioner when Defendants initiated foreclosure proceedings even without the 626 right under an alleged power of sale because the purported assignment was not recorded and by 627 willfully and knowingly financially profiting from their malfeasance. Therefore, due to the 628 special relationship inherent in a real estate transaction between Agent and borrower, and all 629 Defendants' participation in the conspiracy, the Motion to Dismiss should be denied.

630       CAUSE OF ACTION VIOLATION OF TRUTH IN LENDING ACT 15 U.S.C. §1601 ET 631 SEQ

632 Petitioner hereby incorporates by reference, re-pleads and re-alleges each and every allegation 633 contained in all of the paragraphs of the General Allegations and Facts Common to All Causes of 634 Action as though the same were set forth herein.

635 Petitioner is informed and believes that Defendant's violation of the provisions of law rendered
636 the credit transaction null and void, invalidates Defendant's claimed interest in the Subject
637 Property, and entitles Petitioner to damages as proven at trial.

638 INTENTIONAL INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

639 The conduct committed by Defendants, driven as it was by profit at the expense of increasingly 640 highly leveraged and vulnerable consumers who placed their faith and trust in the superior
641 knowledge and position of Defendants, was extreme and outrageous and not to be tolerated by 642 civilized society.

643 Defendants either knew that their conduct would cause Petitioner to suffer severe emotional 644 distress, or acted in conscious and/or reckless disregard of the probability that such distress
645 would occur.

646 Petitioner did in fact suffer severe emotional distress as an actual and proximate result of the 647 conduct of Defendants as described hereinabove.

648 As a result of such severe emotional distress, Petitioner suffered economic and non economic 649 harm and detriment, all to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

650 Petitioner demands that Defendants provide Petitioner with release of lien on the lien signed by 651 Petitioner and secure to Petitioner quiet title;

652 Petitioner demands Defendants disgorge themselves of all enrichment received from Petitioner
653 as payments to Defendants based on the fraudulently secured promissory note in an amount to be 654 calculated by Defendants and verified to Petitioner;

655 Petitioner further demands that Defendants pay to Petitioner an amount equal to treble the 656 amount Defendants intended to defraud Petitioner of which amount Petitioner calculated to be 657 equal to $3,900,657.51

PRAYER

659 WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays for judgment against the named Defendants, and each of them,
660 as follows:

661 For an emergency restraining order enjoining lender and any successor in interest from 662 foreclosing on Petitioner's Property pending adjudication of Petitioner's claims set forth 663 herein:

For a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from engaging in the fraudulent, deceptive, predatory and negligent acts and practices alleged herein;

666 For quiet title to Property:

667       For rescission of the loan contract and restitution by Defendants to Petitioner according 668       to proof at trial;

669       For disgorgement of all amounts wrongfully acquired by Defendants according to proof
670       at trial;

671       For actual monetary damages in the amount $1,300,219.17;

672       For pain and suffering due to extreme mental anguish in an amount to be determined at 673       trial.

674       For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest according to proof at trial;

675       For punitive damages according to proof at trial in an amount equal to $3,900,657.51.

676       For attorney's fees and costs as provided by statute; and,

677       For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

678       Respectfully Submitted,
